THE 110TH ANNUAL

COMMENCEMENT

CEDARVILLE UNIVERSITY

SATURDAY, THE SIXTH DAY OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND SIX AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

DODEN FIELD HOUSE
CEDARVILLE UNIVERSITY
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ — to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:9-11(NIV)

WELCOME TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CLASS OF 2006

Today is the celebration of the 110th commencement of Cedarville University. In 1887, five godly men were led to found Cedarville College. They envisioned an institution that would provide an outstanding education to equip graduates to serve God. Today their purpose lives on at Cedarville University.

Our theme for this academic year has been "Engaging the World for Christ." Throughout the year, we have emphasized the privilege and responsibility we have to build a bridge to Christ for an unbelieving world that desperately needs to hear of God's grace and truth.

Lynne and I, along with our University family, congratulate the Class of 2006. You stand tall on the shoulders of those who have gone before you. The University family has been honored to walk these years of your journey with you. Our desire is that you always will be aware of God's guidance and provision as you walk into the future He has prepared.

Our challenge for you is the same as the Apostle Paul's — "Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible" (I Corinthians 9:19).

To all of the family and friends who are here to celebrate the commencement of the Class of 2006, we welcome you to our ceremony. I trust that this will not only be a time of celebration and joy for you, but also a time of reflection about your own relationship with God and His love for you. The Scriptures say: "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). The beautiful reality of God's love for us and His desire for us to be His children is clearly communicated in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for our sins. We hope this is a reality in your life.

While today marks an end, it is also a beginning. We are blessed to have you here today and trust you will leave changed.

TIM GOEGLIN

Special Assistant to the President and Deputy Director of Public Liaison

White House Photo by David Bohrer

Tim Goeglein is special assistant to the President and deputy director of Public Liaison. A native of Indiana, he has worked in the public arena for 17 years, beginning as communications director and press secretary for U.S. Senator Dan Coats for a decade. He joined the Bush campaign in 2000, and moved his family to Austin, Texas. When the President won, Tim joined the Bush-Cheney transition team, and was commissioned to be part of the original White House staff. A graduate of Indiana University, Bloomington, Tim and his family live in the Washington metropolitan area. "My most important roles in life are husband and father," says Goeglein, "We are a family united by our faith, and our pride in this remarkable country."

CLASS SONG

Be Thou My Vision

Ancient Irish Hymn

Arr. by David Allen

Verse 1

Be Thou my Vision,
O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me,
save that Thou art
Thou my best Thought,
by day or by night,
Waking or sleeping,
Thy presence my light.

Verse 2

Be Thou my Wisdom,
and Thou my true Word;
I ever with Thee and Thou
with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father,
I Thy true son;
Thou in me dwelling,
and I with Thee one.

Verse 3

Riches I heed not,
nor man's empty praise,
Thou mine Inheritance,
now and always:
Thou and Thou only,
first in my heart,
High King of heaven,
my Treasure Thou art.

Verse 4

High King of heaven,
my victory won,
May I reach heaven's joys,
O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart,
whatever befall,
Still be my Vision,
O Ruler of all.

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colorful academic regalia dates from the Middle Ages when European universities took form. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. An intercollegiate commission was formed which established the following standard of uniformity for caps, gowns, and hoods. The standard cap is the mortarboard. The tassel color indicates the subject field.

arts, letters, languages, history	white
business, commerce	drab
communication	silver gray
education	light blue
engineering	orange
music	pink
nursing	apricot
philosophy	royal blue
physical education	sage green
religion	scarlet
science, mathematics	golden yellow
social work	citron
doctor of philosophy,	gold
doctor of education,
doctor of theology,
doctor of arts

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicate the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has a five-inch-wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has a three-inch-wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has a two-inch-wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue velvet indicates the doctoral degrees. The dark brown velvet indicates the master of arts degree. White velvet indicates the bachelor of arts or the master of arts degree. Scarlet velvet indicates the bachelor of divinity degree or the master of divinity degree. Yellow indicates the bachelor of science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features: it is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color which symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Some of the regalia on display represent academic awards that have been conferred from universities outside the United States, notably from Europe. Universities in Europe have not undergone the standardization in academic dress that was introduced in the United States. Each European university retains the right to design unique and distinctive regalia for its graduates. This results in a wide variety of hood and gown colors. The crest of the university may be woven into the hood or panels in the gown. Gowns are worn open and formal attire is worn underneath the gown; women wear black skirts and white blouses, while men wear a formal suit or national costume.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Adopted in 1894, the seal reflects the commitment of the first board of trustees to the cause of Christ. Prominently displayed on the seal were the words, "PRO CORONA ET FOEDERE CHRISTI," interpreted, "For the Crown and the Covenant of Christ," as well as a crown to signify His preeminence. The trustees desired to recognize that Christ was the One for whom Cedarville College existed.

The board of the Baptist Bible Institute, after taking over the operation of Cedarville in 1953, retained the original seal of the College, acknowledging that the desire of Cedarville's founders was theirs as well. They then surrounded the seal with the motto of the Baptist Bible Institute, "For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ," to visually remind those who observed the seal of the common commitment by both institutions to Jesus Christ.

The seal was updated in 2000 when Cedarville College became Cedarville University.
